Teacher's Day Celebration Report

Date: 8th Sep 2025

The Zoology Department celebrated Teacher's Day with great enthusiasm and creativity by organizing a unique activity titled "Students as One-Day Teachers." on 8th sept 2025 to honour the birth anniversary of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan.

The Program began at 8:30am with the participation of all students and staff members. As a part of the celebration, senior as well as junior students took on the role of teachers and conducted classes as per the planned Science Faculty timetable. The program aimed to honour teachers while providing students with an opportunity to experience the role and responsibilities of teaching.

On this occasion, selected students took on the role of teachers for a day and conducted classes for their peers. They prepared and delivered lectures on various zoological concepts, including topics such as genetics, medical zoology, Modern zoological techniques, ecology, and classification of organisms. Their efforts reflected not only their understanding of the subject but also their confidence, communication skills, and creativity.

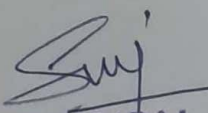

The regular faculty members observed the sessions and appreciated the students for their dedication and effective teaching approaches. This activity helped students gain a deeper understanding of zoological concepts and also fostered respect for the teaching profession.

The Teacher's Day celebration was conducted under the guidance of Principal Dr. H. M. Jare Sir and in the presence of Science In-charge Dr. S. M. Jagtap Madam. Students who served as one-day teachers were felicitated with certificates for their participation. Also, Prof. P. P. Shindekar was felicitated by the Honorable Principal for successfully clearing the SET examination. The Principal, Science In-charge, Heads of Departments, teaching, and non-teaching staff were also honored.

The program included lectures and speeches emphasizing the importance of teachers. Prof. S. J. Pacharane Sir, along with the Principal and Science In-charge, guided and motivated the students. The event concluded with a vote of thanks, and the combined efforts of students and staff made the celebration a grand success.
