When it's comes to what a takes to be a good citizen, the public has long list of traits and behaviours that it says are important. Still, there are differences when it comes to which aspects are considered is very important. Being a citizen of this country in order to know students about their rights duties as well as responsibilities our institute organized number of activities. Independence Day, Republic Day, Constitutional Day are celebrated with great enthusiasm. Reading of constitution of India is done during Republic Day celebration in the institution. In addition Institute offers a special course on human values and ethics to the students.

India is democratic country. So in order to know the importance of voting, various activities are conducted to students as well as to nearby village peoples. Furthermore birth anniversary of great Indian personalities are celebrated with great devotion.

Being a citizen of this country it's solely our duty to protect the environment. Our institute has initiated a program Blood Donation Camp, Haemoglobin Check-up Camp and Blood Checking is organized.

The nearby area of Institute is related to farming. Institute organizes various innovative practices by departments with the students regarding the environment Glimpse of activities,
